Irish Dance Prodigy and Hit Show Producer, Justin Boros, Releases Official Soundtrack to We Three Kings, The Irish Dance Christmas Sensation and Announces Auditions for the 2026 Christmas Tour!

Los Angeles, CA - (April 22, 2026) - Justin Boros, former lead dancer in Michael Flatley's Lord of the Dance and hit show producer, just released the official soundtrack for his new production that he will star in, We Three Kings, The Irish Dance Christmas Sensation. Justin has spent the last three years working closely with multiple award-winning composers to complete the 22 track soundtrack that features many of our favorite Christmas and Holiday classics, such as Ode to Joy, Carol of the Bells, We Three Kings, and many more, all originally composed with dramatic orchestral variations to fit the storyline of his new show, We Three Kings, The Irish Dance Christmas Sensation. The We Three Kings, The Irish Dance Christmas Sensation official soundtrack is now available across all popular streaming platforms such as Apple Music, iTunes Store, Spotify, Pandora, Amazon Music, and YouTube Music, and will be available for purchase at all live performances.

Justin Boros is an Irish dance phenom with a background that is one of inspiration. Many people are familiar with the film 'Billy Elliott' and the boy who followed his dream to become a professional dancer when exposed to ballet. Justin Boros is the real-life version of 'Billy Elliot' in the Irish dance world. Justin was a star basketball player on his state championship high school basketball team at the age of 15 in Akron, Ohio, when he saw a performance of Michael Flatley's Lord of the Dance air on PBS. At that moment, his life forever changed. Mesmerized by what he saw, he bought himself a pair of Irish dance hard shoes and began teaching himself to Irish dance from the VHS tapes of Lord of the Dance. Having no prior dance experience, Justin spent nearly every night until four in the morning in his parent's basement practicing Irish dancing and learning every step from Lord of the Dance. A year and a half later, Justin put together an audition tape and flew to Disney World in Orlando, Florida, for a family vacation where Lord of the Dance was performing and auditioned at the American Gardens Theatre in Epcot Center. Following his audition, he achieved the impossible, and his dream came true. He was offered a 26-page contract to join the world's largest touring production, Michael Flatley's Lord of the Dance. Justin became an Irish dance prodigy overnight as only 1 of 3 Americans in Lord of the Dance world-wide. During his time in Lord of the Dance, Justin went on to play a lead role and toured Canada, North America, Mexico, and South America.

Following his time in Michael Flatley's Lord of the Dance, Justin's dream did not step there, as he went on to produce and star in two additional Irish dance touring productions from 2010 - 2018. In 2022, Justin had a new vision to create an epic tale inspired by our favorite Christmas traditions with the exciting rhythms of Irish dance, combined with original cinematic orchestral variations of our favorite Holiday classics in a way that has not been done prior on a live stage. A production that would become a Christmas staple and sensation for families to share each Holiday season. Following a 22 month writing process, and 3 years directing and working with multiple award-winning composers to complete the official soundtrack, Justin partnered with industry leading talent and production companies, Talent One Entertainment and SuperSonic Attractions, to officially present 'We Three Kings, The Irish Dance Christmas Sensation.'

We Three Kings, The Irish Dance Christmas Sensation takes the audience on an epic adventure inspired by the age-old tradition of the Three Magi and their legendary voyage to the west. Along their journey, they encounter the evil Sugar Plum Fairy and her dark soldiers threatening to abolish the Christmas Spirit and steal the crown from the Kingdom once and for all. Featuring 20 of the world's most accomplished Irish dancers and musicians, We Three Kings, The Irish Dance Christmas Sensation tells the inspiring tale of hope, love, and salvation by celebrating our favorite Christmas traditions through exciting storytelling, dance, and music. Combined with an epic original Holiday score by multiple award-winning composers, the electrifying soundtrack and state of the art lighting create a thundering cinematic backdrop to an unforgettable Christmas experience for the entire family! We Three Kings, The Irish Dance Christmas Sensation will make its National tour debut the Holiday season of 2026 in theatre's all across North America!

Talent One Entertainment will be hosting live auditions for the 2026 Christmas Tour at the upcoming 2026 North American Irish Dance Championships in Orlando, Florida, over the week of July 4th. Logistics for the auditions and registration will be announced soon.
